

Melbourne’s Inner North is showing the way in philanthropic giving.

An average of 47.7% of taxpaying residents made, and claimed, a tax deductible donation in 2006-2007, which is well above the Victorian average of 39.5%. Have a look at how giving your suburb compares to others in Darebin, Moreland and Yarra. Note: figures do not include raffles or volunteering

