

Dr Christopher Baker

Christopher was passionate about giving, and growing generosity. He said

“ The biggest gift that my mother and father gave me was my values and my education. It’s those things that enable me to live my life as a life that I can feel comfortable about. It’s not money, it is values.”

His values addressed injustice, and he is remembered fondly as being a proper person - with a revolutionary heart.

11/4/1957 - 12/6/2020

INNER NORTH
COMMUNITY
FOUNDATION