

Maria Wilhemina Catherina Grundemann Walta

As we reflect on Mary's extraordinary life we remember her great enthusiasm and optimism, no matter how great the difficulty or challenging the task. The darkest cloud always had a silver lining! Mary has left a great legacy to many people and their communities. Her faith, organizational skills, compassion, energy, perseverance, and most importantly her sense of what is "enough" in life, have kept many focused on the needs of others.
