

Women in North Richmond Fund 2023 Grant Guidelines

The Inner North Community Foundation acknowledges the custodians of the land where we work, live, study and volunteer, the Wurundjeri Woi Wurrung people of the Kulin Nation. We pay our respects to their Elders past, present and emerging, and give thanks to other first nations people in our community, especially Elders.

Version 1- 7 March 2023

Grant Guidelines may be changed from time to time. Prior to applying please ensure you have the most recent version of this document which can be found on the 'Apply for Funding' section of the website.

Grants program purpose

Women in North Richmond (WINR), is a named fund of the Inner North Community Foundation. WINR supports local women, including girls, young women and nonbinary people, to connect through social, cultural, educational, and financial opportunities that enable them to thrive in the community of North Richmond. The Grants program will offer grants of up to $500 to eligible organisations.

Target audiences for funding

Grants of up to $500 are available to organisations supporting girls, women and non-binary people aged between 15 -25 residing or otherwise directly connected to North Richmond.

Applications are accepted by case workers on behalf of prospective beneficiaries that aim to connect them to social, cultural and educational endeavours.

Eligibility for funding

Single year funding applicants must be organisations that:

- Non-profit organisations registered with the Australian Charities and Not for Profits Commission that also are endorsed DGR1 entities by the Australian Tax Office. .
- Applications are submitted by a caseworker for women and everyone who identifies as a girl, woman or non-binary person aged 15 – 25.
- Beneficiaries are connected to North Richmond. This could be as a resident, student, someone who frequently visits or participates in a program in the area. i.e., Richmond Youth Hub or North Richmond Richmond Community Health Centre.
- Applicant organisations are encouraged to de-identify beneficiary details in the application if appropriate.

What will not be funded

Generally speaking, funding is not available for:

- Beneficiaries that are not directly linked to North Richmond.
- Individuals, 'for profit' organisations, sports clubs, government bodies, political parties or their candidates
- Funding for projects that have already been completed

Who we are

The Inner North Community Foundation is an independent community foundation based in Melbourne's Inner North. Since 2007, we have awarded more than $5.1 million in grants to more than 550 community projects run by 250 organisations across 30 suburbs in the municipalities of Darebin, Moreland and Yarra.

From Fitzroy to Fawkner, Richmond to Reservoir, and Brunswick to Bundoora, the Foundation partners with donors and community groups to facilitate grants and provide services that enable people to make a difference to the community we all share. To achieve our vision, we:

- Remove the barriers the local people face to participate in community life
- invest in local nonprofit organisations through grants and other support
- connect donors to local community groups by managing a donor network for people to contribute small and large donations
